Moit County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING At1,50 Per Annum in Advance

OB WORK NEATLY AND PROMPTLY EXECUTED At Lowest Living Rates.

Advertising Rates Furnised on APPLICATION.

Address All Communications to The SENTINEL,

Datarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear, and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

JUST PUBLISHED.

Cures Pains and Aches.

The Laboratory of the System system, in which certain mysterious processes are constantly going over crippled he powers. Her tamily had These result in the production of that been wealthy, but adversity had overswonderful vivifying agent, the blood, taken them. Her father and male relative to the contract of den with the elements of vitality to one to avenge her wrongs. Benuthe remotest 'parts of the sy-tem .-But when the stomach is semi paralyzed by dyspepsis, blood manufac-ture is carried on imperfectly, the circulation grows thin and eli ggish, and the system suffers in consequence. Moreover, indigestion redering the first sluggish and the lat-ter constipated. The brain also safe. Cooke when Beauchamp announced She gloried in it, and somed at the ter constiputed. The brain al. o saf- bis intention of calling him out; "he is fers by sympathy, and sick bendaches, sleeplessness and nervous symptoms 1821 [110] 198 1110 are engendered. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters reforms this state of things, The legislature was in session a gives permanent tone and regularity to the stomach and its associate or- Col. Sharpe at the Mansion House gans, the boweis and liver, and en. The Colonel recognized him cord'ally, sures complete nourishment and in- "I've come to Frankfort to see you on

The Antecedents of Disease. Among the antecedents of disease a nervous manner and eye sparking dition of the physique, indicating | ined, spoke to you? that the life current is deficient in nutritive properties, a wan, baggerd look, inability to digest the food; spirit of prophecy, she, the last time loss of appetite, sleep and strength, you ever saw her, wasned you would and a sensation of unnatural languor. All these may be regarded as the indicia of approaching disease, which ply, will eventually at ick the system and overwhelm it if is not built up and fartified in advance. Invigorate, then, without loss of time, making choice of the greatest stalizing agent extant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an elixir which begiven head; wigor to myrine of the sick and debilltated, which is avouched by phy- knife.

siciaus and aulaysts to be pure as well as effective, which is immensely popular in this country, and extensively used abroad, and which has been for years past one of the leading you should aght her friend and avengmedicinal staples of America.

All babies are dinfinutive Cosars, lady. Had her brothers mordered me, and hauled him to the gallows. since they come they see, they con- I would not have raised my hand to duer, sometimes by their gentle still- defend myself. And if you are her ness, but of ther by continued up- husband, I can never fight you." coarious crying induced by Colic, "I am not her husband, but her Teething, Flatuence, etc. Dr. Ball's friend and avenger. She sent me to He was too weak to sit upon it unpro-Baby Syrup by its gentle, yet specific influence, quicts the little ones without ever producing the least injuri- Beauchamp seized him by the collar. Moscow," were his last words. bottle

iost County Sentines.

THE OLDEST PAPER IN THE COUNTY

VOLUME XIV

me live," he cried.

OREGON, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20 1878

NUMBER 14

THE BEAUCHAMP TRACEDY.

The Assassination of Atty-Gen. Sharpe, of Kentucky.

Was Hamged.

Of the many or imes committed the sacred soil of Kentucky there nevor has been one for romance of inci-dent, chivalry of motive, tragedy of ending equal to that of the Beauchamp affair. Though transpiring many er taken up her residence near his father's farm.

Beauchamp heard the tale and resolved that Sharpe's hour had now come. He repaired to Frankfort, and, days, it is very doubtful if Beauchamp Miss Cooke was metancholy as a formulation obtain lodgings at the hotels. er's lute, lived in great privacy, and pussed the night with Scott, the keep-her mysterious movements and inten-tional withdrawal from society threw early; and prepared for his murderous around her a halo of suystification that deed. Instead of shoes he put on yarn allowed to suffer and scream with fired the arder of the law student and stockings. He concealed his face in a pain from Colic, Flatulence, Bowel made him a willing slave at her feet read bandanna handkerchief. He se- Disorders, etc., when some simple, He called upon her, actually forced creted a long knife in his bosom. timself into her presence, and bor- Stealthily he crawled unobserved out Baby Syruy, would give almost imrowed books of ther, simply to afford of his lodgings, and repaired noise him an excuse to call again. She re-pell d his advances in a manner that only lared him on. He presented her "Who's there?" cried Sharpe.

A CURE FOR only lared him on. He presented her with kindness and baunted her with "Covington," replied Beauchamp arder that induced her to tell him her and Beauchamp seized him by the story, and wrung from him a promise throat. He tried to escape. of revenge. She had been betrayed, she said, by Col. Sharpe. Her case was a peculiarly sad one. Col. Sharpe had been cred rights at hospitality he had repaid by filehing the daughter's virtue. And she, like many another, became a God, it is he." The stomach is the inboratory of the been famed for her beauty, yet her mother ere she was a wife. She had champ, tie to her tate by the silken ament that, preed him to wash out by assassination or challenge the wrong Sharpe to the doom he deserved.

Frankfort, Beanchamp readily found The landanum was divided. She swalcreased vigor of the system. It is the important business," and Beauchamp most popular as well as the most efficient anti-dy-peptic and tonic in take a walk."

They went to a retired spot by the river side. The bell at the Manslon House rang for supper. Reanchamp turnest upon Sharpe with are inertness in the circulation of the with anger. "The you remember the blood, an unnaturally attenuated con- last words Mi-s Cooke, whom you ru-Sharp stood as if transfixed.

"I am the avenger whom, in the right her wrongs." Sharpe stood still, deigning no re

Will you fight a duel with me?" My dear friend, I cannot fight you on Miss Cooke's account." "Detend yourself, then, coward and villian that you are," shricked Beaump, drawing an enormous dirk. "I have no weapon but a penknife."

"My dear friend I cannot fight you, still urged Sharpe. "You d-d villain, what do you

Beauchamp threw him a Spanish mean by that? That she is not worthy "My triend I mean that I can never take your life. Now, d-d villain, you tected. shall die " and presuming that Sharpe, surrounded by his friends, would make a show of resistance, provided binned with pistols, with which to finish him. Sharpe

He who lights and runs away May live to fight another day. years ago, its details have lost none of their treshness, and the high standing his horse en poute for flowling Green of the tamilies and their persistent of Beanchamp returned to his home. Miss. forts to ensure a countries eciating Cooke now resolved to take vengence in her own hands. Daily she pracmemberance, and reader it a romance tiged with pistols, till her aim became that even at this late day all Kentuck- deadly. She tried to lure Sharpe to ians love to talk of and wonder over. her house. He avoided her: Beau-The murderer, or infatuated avenger change regrained from any further atof another's wrongs, was d. O. Besti-champ, the son of a respectable farmer Cooke the opportunity she wished for, near Bowling Green. He was a young It never came, and this desire to kill law student of nan-ual promise, whose him horself gave to Sharpe many a talents and address had attracted the day of life. In June, 1824, Beaufavorable notice of the afterward-mur- champ and Miss Cooke were married.

his studies had, with a widowed moth- stantiate this unheard-of villany.

attentions. He proposed, was reject. (Covingtor was an intimate friend of cal; she would never mary. He per. Sharpe'.). The door opened, Sharpe appeared

> Mrs | Sharpe appeared at a real Besuchamp tore off his mask and thrust his face close to his doomed raised in her father's family. The savictim. . "And do you know me?" he scoffingly sneered. Sharpe drow back and cried, "Great

They were his last words. Beauchan p plunged his dagger deel into his heart. The blood spouted up on the walls and dabbied the floor.-"Die," was all Brauchamy said. And AT 9 PER. CIPIL OF The hue and cry was soon raised. The assassin was tollowed by an eage cords of a desperate love as well as the Crowd of pursuers. Captured, arreed, he was brought back and tried. He was convicted; he was sentenced to b executed. His wife remained with done, rendly took an oath to hard him to the last. She made no attempt at concealing the fact that she instigathreats of indicting her as accessory before the tast. The night before the ececution she procured an onnce vial offaudamens and persuaded her hus-

lowed one half. He took his portion. Then they knelt and prayed. They sang for joy; they shouted that their sins had been torgiven, and in a delirium, affectacy roused the other inmater of the prison. The poison did not work. She swore that she would starve herself to death, die with her hu-band and be buried in the same

Julie 5, 1826, was a great day in Francfort. The city was thronged to ing. last of J. O. Beauchamp. The black a d ominous gibbert was erected op near by. The drums beat dirges from an early hour .-At 11 o'c ock Mrs. Beauchamp told the jaller o leave her for a few min utes with her husband. The jailer left, but was soon recalled by deep groans from their cell. He returned and found then both weltering in blood. They had stabbed themselves with a knite the wife had concealed .-His wound was not tatal. His wife soon expired. Beauchamp was carried to her bedside, as her life's blood was ebbing fast. He felt her pulse .-"Farewell, child of sorrow, farewell, victum of persecution and misfortune! You are now safe from the tongue of slander. For you I've lived, for you I

The blood was trickling from his wounds. He was too weak to sit up, fight the triend of that worthy, injured so they laid him in a covered wagon sympathy and consolation. They were Heraised his dagger. Sharpe ran. drums play Bonaparte's Retreat from Beauchamp released his hold, slap- marked by a modest shaft. Before her ped Sharp's face, and kicked him as he death Mrs. Beauchamp wrote the fol- happy wite was never seen apart from their wardrobes be filled with the most be labored for through many a weary arose. "Get up, you coward, I'll pub- lowing epitaph, which was engraved her husband. Scores of young men canning creations of worth, and they year by licly horsewhip you to-morrow in the on the tombstone of the misguided who called upon her in his absence will wear shapeless, comfortable dress. We shall be told by the strong mind-Hreet, you infernal coward," he said.

Beauctamp meant to be as good as his word. He procured a horsewhip.

A villian's wiles her peace has
The hashand of her heart revives

A villian's wiles her peace has crossed— The husband of her heart revived The happiness she long had lost.

He heard her tail of matchless woe, And burning for revenge arme; He layed her base betrayer low, And struck dismay to virtue's foes.

Reaster, it honoris generous blood E'er warmed the beart, here drop a tear, And let the sympathetic flood Deep in thy mind its traces wear. brother or a sister thou-

Dishimored see thy histor dear:

Then turn and see the villian low, And let fall a grateful tear. Daughters of virtue grant the tear. That love and honor's tomb may claim. In your defence the husband here

Laid down in youth his life and fame. His wife disdamed a life forlors. Reft from her heart's beloved lord; Then, reader, here their fortunes mourn,

Who for their love their life-blood poured, The excitement over the fate of and succeeded in suppressing it en- is beyond the power of man.

Prejudice often rules in the physical treatment of Babies. They are reliable and safe remedy as Dr. Bull's mediate relief and perfect case to the

A CURE FOR FLIRTATION. The second

The Novel Expedient Adopted by California Husband.

(From the New York Times 1 Various crude and unsatisfactory schemes for the preventation of flirt-There was a man in lowa who cut off tian adornment of her person, but really in order to prevent her from reabroad rupiors that his wife was suf-die." He kissed her lips; he was press all flirting tendencies on the part who paint their faces, dye their hair, What it the eminent and elequent their wardrobes be filled with the most per husband. Scores of young men who called apon her in his absence were politely told that she was not at home. Obviously, this was the only course which she could pursue. Every day, when her husband went to business, he carried her teeth with him, and she would sooner have died than to have snown herself in a toothless state. Every evening her teeth were state.

Their grave is at Bloomfield, Ky., their married happiness.

pletely subjugated.

Improper articles of food often

WOMEN OF THE TIMES.

Their Alleged Deficiencies in Mind, Morals and Manners.

One of Their Sex Defends Them From Misrepresentations.

For quite ten years past it has seeming on the part of married women week, in magazines and journals of rant deluded boys, we can scarcely malaria has been found. Clifford's have been tried from time to time, society, and as we read we wonder blame women, who have been brought Febrifuge is a perfect remedy against what has become of our good women up to consider marriage as the end his wife's beautiful yellow hair, on the Some of these articles are undeniably and aim of their existence, if they take pretext that it was a vain and anchris- clever; they sparkle throughout with the road that apparently leads most only breaks the chill, but thoroughly humorous alluvions, and are pointed swiftly to the goal. to the utmost limit of sharpness with ceiving visitors until her hair should the most pungent satire. To this man's rights affirm that if women diseases of every kind-Fever and grow-again. This, however, seriously bright show of wit and cutting sarcasm were to recieve an education similar to mpaired the wife's value and was may be added, perhaps, a small pro- that of men-if their faculties were Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headmerely a modefication of the savage portion of truth-unpalatable, of cultivated, if they were trained to hold nose breaking process. Another man course, to those against whom it is reasonable opinions upon political -a Chicago person-constantly spread levelled. But the old adage of "no matters, and then, finally, to recieve It is purely vegetable and as harmsmoke without fire," is applicable in the tranchise-feminine frivolity and less as water. Try it and be confering from diplitheria or scarlet fever; this case as in many others, and we fastness would disappear like chaff be vinced. but finding that there were young men must all admit that it would have been fore the wind. Frankly speaking, we who could not be thus terrified, he fi- impossible for it writers of these ar- do not believe one word of it. That nally contrived to have her imoculated ticles to have drawn upon their imagi- women are under-educated we admit with small pox. "For about a week he nation for all the follies, shortcomings, freely-not, however, in the knowledge enjoyed the success of his ingenious eccentricities of womankind, which to be gained from books and the learn plan, but at the end of that time his they so mercilessly assail. But when ed professor of this science and that wite died, putting him to the expense we have given these articles all the but in common things; they penetrate of a funeral and the annoyance of be credit due to them for eleverness, and into the holy of holles of the temple of ing without a wife for hearly five acknowledged the small amount of knowledge, and leave the outer courts that the banks are unable to procure a months truth with which some of them are unexplored. What can it avail for a supply of small bills from the Treas-The most noteworthy plan which garnished, we have said for them all woman to have the literature and any Department, and it has been supwas ever devised for autorcing mari- that it is possible to say. Surely the languages of half a dozen countries at posed that this difficulty proceed d tal faithfulness was that tried by a majority of them are a libel upon wo- her finger ends, and to be as wise as from a desire to make place for the Californian residing in Benicia. Two men, and it is scarcely a proud boast the Egyptians of old-even if with new silver coinage. There small notes years ago he married a widow of re- for men that have allowed to pass with- that wisdom she combines the "sim- are in great demand by the country markable beauty and well carned rep out censure this long pile of acrites plicity of Vents' Doves"-it she cannot banks, and a free suppy of them your own fault, and there isouly one utation for flirting. She had never tions against that sex without whom order an eatable dinner for her hus-would be a great public convenience. excuse for you, - your nareasonable been accused of any really immoral act they would be as a world without a band, and if she calmly tells you that But they have not been withheld from prejudice and skepticism, which has such as eloping with a poor man or sun. Where is the chivalry of this she does not know the difference bean imposter-but being extremely once nightly land? Has it departed to tween a leg and a shoulder of muton? or to substitute silver in their stead, edge and common sense reasoning fond of admiration and society, she was the centre of a group of young men who were currently said to bask lies buried and forgotten? Yes, chivin her smiles, though there is a differ- alry, poetry and romance were the happily have to fight a hard fight to make insufficient appropriations for its miserable effects, such as sick ence of opinion among scientific au- three graces of an age which we of enough, and not always single handed, thorities as to what constitutes bask- the progressive, broad-minded and or rather without incumbrance; for highly cultured nineteenth century poor marriages far more than depend- banks at distant points. In 1876 $250,- fration, low spirits, etc. Its sales The latest husband of this charm. despise. If a man does a chivairous ent spin-sterhood serve to drag women of particularity action now, if for one brief moment had clown to that lowly condition, which is ing woman was a man of particularly action now, if for one brief moment he down to that lowly condition which is jealous disposition, and his acquain- forgets the articles of the faith in a terrible misfortune, but surely not a partment for the current year only You can buy a sample bottle for 10 tances prophesied that the widow which he has been brought up, and is disgrace, to their womanhood, and $50,000 was provided. This sum has cents. Three doses will relieve you. would drive him to insanity, murder actually guilty of some act that savors from which neither the higher educaor suicide in a very brief time after the of romance, the cry is cui tono? and ted nor the frauchise will raise them. honeymoon. He was well aware of will it pay? And we suppose it would And let us suppose for a momen' that less to enable it to keep the country the difficulties of his position, but calm- not pay to utter one manly protest women universally agreed to give up banks supplied with small bills or ly determined to prevent his wife from against the libels published so unblush- the graces. refinements and accom- even the new colunge of silver. The through its connection with lowar flirting, and was strengthened in that ingly upon the women of this country plishments which the strong-minded vanits of the Treasury are, as a condetermination by the open pity which his triends expressed for him. It so that they are not nearly, nor even one-teeth, which were marvellously beauti- denials of the asserti n that the "wo- We are told that if women will but try ful, were false. He was the only hat men of the period," to use the cant they can leave men far behind in all man being in Benicia who possessed ferm, are simply what men have made the learned professions. If that be this terrible secret, and he felt well as- them, and we ourselves do not pretend true, then, of course, no one would the whole human system, as it con of his future bride. The honeymoon and endeavor, by every artificial means Miss Elizabeth Brown could be retainplace in California, and no opportuni- poor things-to their natural attracty was given to the wife to indulge her, tlons, or to simulate attractiveness tondness for society other than that or when unture has not been beautiful; her husband. On the very first morn- but if men would but universally con-turn home, a note from his wife was pure to gratify either affection or admi she can lay saide the outward attriput into his hands. It informed him ration in marriage, rush wildly into butes of her sex. that, weary of his intolerable cruelty, imitation of the folly which breaks There is a story told, we torget she had eloped. The companion of none of the canvas of society, and so where, or by whom, of a woman who Has Entirely Cured me of Vertigo, Beauchamp and the tragic end of his her flight was a man, both of whose go on from folly to folly, step by step, disgnised herself as a soldeir and enwife has lent to the tragedy a roman- logs had been shot away. "We have until, in a moment of utter weakness, tered the service of some king or comdered Sojomon P. Sharp, at that time And then he claimed he had the right tic halo, and some years since John offset my teeth against his legs," said the barrier between sin and folly is mander, chiefly remarkable for her Besuchamp was of argent tempera-ment entertained examination of Miss man's purity, and once upon his va- Cooke added to his unpopularity, so thed "The Sybil," which, however, was east, where cork legs and false teeth of fast women, must not every one to conform to the habits and occupacations chanced to meet Miss Ann be announced that Miss Cooke's child performed only twice. Sharpe's son during his absence in the pursuit of produced a forged certificate to subagainst the performance of the peace, to keep a wilful woman from flirting popular with the majority of men ?- years of faithful service, this pretended Do we not repeatedly see fast girls in man was guilty of some breach of disevery grade of society married, and cipline, the penalty of which was quite domesticated girls allowed to be- death. Many were the efforts made to cause the blood to become loarded come old maids? And put a clever, save the culprit, but all in vain; yet, with four humors. Cleanse the blood intellectual girl, not a blue, but a wo- at the last moment, when the beauti- I Believe it to be a Good Mediwith Dr. Bull's Blood Misture and be man of culture, a woman whose con- ful white bosom was bared, and her versation is always worth listening to, long cherished secret revealed, the tyand a fast girl, who can only flirt and rant was moved by the weakness of waltz, to run a matrimonial race tothe sex against whom no true man gether, and it will be seen that the man of the age will be captured by the manbood she had so long abjured

Wegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the Vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of the vegetine has done for me. I have been affler
of fast damsel, who kindly takes so much proved her only sateguard in the end. of the trouble of the courtship off his And will it not be so with those wemen shoulders; but we do not undertake to who now desire to strive with men for say that she will prove a blessing to the prizes of this life? In some hour her husband. And to go farther still, of utrer weakness will not womanhood have we not known instances in which reveal itself, and, in the name and for bave we not known instances in which reveal itself, and, in the name and for women who were fast in the fullest meaning of the word have been morning of the word have been selling your Vege-time for the past eightsen meaning of the word have been selling your Vege-time for the past eightsen meaning that in every case, to our knowledge, it has given great satisfaction.

BUCK & COWGILL, Druggists, BUCK & COWGILL, BUCK & C ed good to certain writers to represent meaning of the word have been mor- forbearace and respect? women as is the last stage of deca- rico, and eagerly sought in marriage. Articles more or less aimed against fence of their conduct that they had women, maids and matrons, appear acted for honor's sake? When such month after wonth, and week after things are done by men, not by igno- safe, certain and effectual antidute to

> The irrepressible advocates of wo happened that he had learned, through some occult source, that the widow's We have read and listened to many what would become of the poor man?

> > sew, he is ashamed. But another view of the subject pre-

"Take my property; my whole es- coffin, folded in each other's arms .- designing men, and to thus prevent no doubt do, dress against one anoth- longer deserving of the term gentle, be tate is at your command, but, oh, let Even in death they were not divided - any shadow of discord from blighting or, but shut up a dozen good-looking fain to share with men some of what women together for a week in a coun- we may call the more picturesque pro-For the next three months that un- try house, without any men, and let fessions, as well as those which must

> to receive calls in her husband's prestone true also that the women whom the woman could desire. But the position cuce. The whole town was lost in cuphemisms of the day call free lances of women will never be improved by wonder at her absolute cossation of and queens of the demimonde, bring the process of unsexing, and unsexed flirting, and hundreds of husbands these vagaries into tashion, and that, she will be if she attempts to leave not di were ready to offer unlimited wealth seeing the tide of admiration setting her subordinate, not her inferior, not to learn how she had been so com- strongly toward those reckless crea- her degraded position, but the posi- why tures, to whom one folly or one sin tion suitable to the peculiarities of Last week while the husband, with more or less is a matter of no moment, temperament and character which the teeth in his pocket, was about to the fair women who crave for that ad- have been created in her, and from leave his place of business and to re- miration for themselves, and who as- which she can no more depart than Joy to the World. The afflicted may now rejeice. A R. H. STEVENS, Boston all diseases caused by malaria. It not eradiacates the poison. Its action is truly wonderful; it cures malarious Ague, Intermittent Fever, Remittent ache and Billions Fever of all kinds.

'J. C. RICHARDSON, Pro'r, For sale by all druggists. hills, which is greatly inconveniencing the poisonous missin or malaria, and the country of late, seems to be the resalt of misplaced sconomy. 'It is said carities and the moneys of the Treas- sour stomach, habitual costiveness, my from one flice to another, or the dizziness of the head, nervous pros-1877, while for the service of the De- will tell you of its wonderful cures. dharges on necessary transfers, much The German College at Mount

Liver is King. The Liver is the imperial organ of sured that it would enable him to re- to say that all men admire women think of giving a brief to Solicitor. trols the life, health and happiness o man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments was passed in travelling from place to in their power, to add-as they think, ed; and if his clients go over en masse are the natural result. The digestion to the fair advocate, what is the poor of food, the movements of the heart day to be without the Celebrated White to do? He cannot nurse; to and blood, the action of the brain and Western Remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysnervous system are all immediately entery. Colera Morbus and Cholera connected with the workings of the Infantum, Brown's Extract Black-He waved his hands to the ladies whose weeping eyes cheered him with the hushand rose early, put his wife's and padding, women would very soon promised Utopia is ours, and that men and druggless join in recommending entire set of teeth in Lis pocket, and begin to leave themselves as God and women have no longer any dis- equalled in curing all persons afflict- it to their customers and patrons. compelled to help him get on his offin. coolly informed her that hereafter he made them. Does any one believe tinctive place in the world. When, in- ed with Dyspepsia or Liver comshould never leave her alone without that a woman would pinch and screw stead of the "perfect music" set to plaint, and all the numerous symptaking her teeth with him. Tears, en- to reduce her waist from, say, twenty- "noble words," the once dear compan- toms that result from an unhealthy cician, and the life of some loved one "Give me some water. Let the treaties and threats had no effect upon three or twenty-four inches to eight ion of man's leisure hours, the friends condition of the Liver and Stomach. of the family. "Delays are Dangerhim, and he carried of the teeth, re- teen, if she did not think that some of his manhood and the comforters of Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Pos- pils, and Eureka Ague Pills, are a marking as he went out of the door special man, or a variety of men, his decline, have begun to set inharmo. Itively sold in all towns on the Westan effect Price twenty-five cents a Sasrp fell upomhis knebs and begged They buried the self-murdered wife that it was his duty as a husband to would admire her anew when the reand the executed husband in the same guard her from the approaches of duction was made? Women may, and their own, will not they, the sex no prove that it is just what you want. 'ty, Mo.

Bolt County Sentinel

PUBLISHED EVERY PRIDAY MORNING.

At 1,50 Per Annum in Advance ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO

The SENTINEL, OREGON, MO.

Purifies the Blood and Gives

Strength.

VEGETINE

VEGETINE

XENIA, O., March 1,1879. In. H. R. STRVENS -Dear Sir, -I wish to inform you what your regetine has done for me. I have been afflict-Vegetias thoroughly eradicales every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

Druggist's Report.

VEGETINE Prepared by

Vegetine is Sold by all DRUCCISTS.

An Antiblate which will ence over variety of Ague, Fever and Ague, and Chills and Fever, and leave no bad trace of disorded in the syste has been descovered by one of America's greatest Chemists. This preparation or principle is known by the name of Clifford's Febrifuge. Being entirely free from minerals of other deleterious materials, it accomplishes its work without being in the least harmful to the system. Entering the The scarcity of one and two dollar blood, it disinfects and elminates all

J. C. RICHARDSON, Prop'r,

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you in this beautiful world, it is enti-ply the transportation of Government se- headache, palpitation of the heart, from $3.00 to $4.00 per week, in clubs from $1.25 to $1.75, while for lodging in the Students Home the charfe is $2.00 to 3.00 per term Write for particulars or catalogues to GEO. F. W. WILLEY Pres.

CHAS. G. BECKER Agt: This is for Every Family.

No western family can afford for a